Love Takes Work

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

If you believed your own natural death was imminent, would that affect the decisions you make? When St. Paul wrote to the church in Corinth, that was his expectation—that the Lord's return was going to take place quickly, that the Second Coming was just about to occur and could happen at any time.

While St. Paul writes to the Corinthians that it is better to be unmarried than married, the purpose of this advice is to keep life simple and focused on what is important. Don't make any long-term commitments like buying a field, or starting a business, or even getting married. Be ready and prepared because the end of the world could literally be tomorrow. "I should like you to be free of anxieties," he wrote. Much later, St. Paul realized the end was not going to happen as soon as originally expected.

Saint Paul was not against marriage. He would be the first to say that, ideally, marriage can and often does reveal the depths of human love, but he would also say that it takes work; it doesn't happen all by itself. Just as readily, St. Paul would also note that, ideally, celibacy can and often does reveal the breadth of love given in service to others, whether the celibate person is lay, a priest, or a religious. It can seem, however, that the unclean spirit that Jesus cast out continues to roam human lives. All of us struggle to live out love as best we can, wherever we find ourselves in life. ●

Reflect

What in your life gets in the way of loving as well as you would wish?

All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him."

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

Wendy Kraushaar is our birthday girl this week. Happy birthday, Wendy, and thanks for all the work you do for our parish. May God bless you abundantly.

Jean & Ed Mann and Bob & Helen Herauf are off to warmer climes leaving us behind to brave our Saskatchewan winter. May they return rejuvenated and well tanned.

Then there's Len & Loretta Jelinski who are off to dog sit in Winnipeg while their children enjoy a warm holiday. Is there something wrong with this picture?

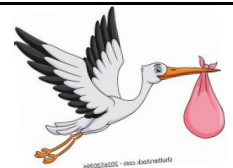

Preparations are beginning for Lent which will be with us soon. Plan to join us for the Poor Man's Supper on all the Fridays in Lent. It's soup and sandwiches in the Gerein Centre at 5:30 pm followed by Stations of the Cross and Mass. It's a nice way to make Lent a little special.

Holy Cross is a community, a family, and families keep up to date on the well being of their members. Let's pass along news of our parishioners so we can pray for or celebrate with them. Call Martin at 306-347-0929 or Joyce at 306-789-1983, or byapple@sasktel.net. Don't be afraid to leave a message.

You may have noticed the green ribbons on the tables at both entrances of the church. They are to remind us of the millions of lives lost to abortion in Canada. Please pick one up and wear it. On January 28/1988, the Supreme Court of Canada struck down abortion as part of the criminal code. There are now no laws regulating abortion in Canada; an abortion is legal in any of the nine months of a pregnancy.

Meanwhile, in one year abortion has killed 44.6 million people before birth worldwide (2023) — more than any other cause of death. (Jan. 9/224 LifeSiteNews)

“Therefore Choose Life: My Journey from Hopelessness to Hope” has been received. You will find it in the library in the Gerein Centre. This is an easy read, a true story of the homeless man suffering from mental illness, alcohol and drug abuse searching for help from coast to coast to coast in Canada. He tells us like it is on the streets, the roadblocks to those seeking healing, the despair, the hope, those who helped him, and always his faith in Jesus.

Pick up a copy. It will at least help you understand what we cannot by ourselves.

LENT !!!

Gathering of the Palms

Ash Wednesday will be February 14 this year. Baskets are now available for you to bring your palms to the church to use to create the ashes. A blessing of the Burning of the Palms will happen Tuesday, February 13 before the 7:00pm Mass.

TAX RECEIPTS ARE NOW READY FOR PICK UP IN THE GEREIN CENTRE.

What's Happening at Holy Cross 2

Thank you to all the volunteers who have signed up for the Poor Man's Suppers this Lenten season, all spots are now filled. I will post the schedule in the Gerein Centre as a reminder for everyone as to when they promised to do their part. If we should get attendance of more than 50 people we may have to ask for more help at that time (ie, more sandwiches and more help to make them). If you have any problems with the schedule please give me a call at 306-789-4442 or email liska@accesscomm.ca.

A Note of Thanks!

I wish to thank parishioners for all the prayers, the get well wishes, visits and calls as I recovered from a "near death" experience just before Christmas. Also, a special thanks to Lila's daughter-in-law in Calgary for opening her home so I could rest after the hospital stay before I returned to Regina – an angel!

And you, the parishioners, are truly "Christ on Earth" -- I experienced it!! Thank you.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties."- 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future. Then spend your time praying instead of worrying.

CATECHISM LESSON THIRTY-NINE

What is Holy Mass?

Watch Videos: www.archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Catechism Text: CCC nos. 1330-1332

Sacred Scripture: Luke: 22.19, 1 Cor 11.24-27, Mal 1.11-14

Ignatius of Antioch: Make certain, therefore, that you all observe one common Eucharist; for there is but one Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, and but one cup of union with his Blood, and one single altar of sacrifice—even as there is also but one bishop, with his clergy and my own fellow servitors, the deacons. This will ensure that all your doings are in full accord with the will of God. (Letter to the Philadelphians 4 [A.D. 110]).

FAQ: How does the second edition of the Catechism of the Catholic Church differ from the first edition?

The second edition differs in two ways. First, the second edition reflects the changes that were made in the final Latin text in 1997. Second, the second edition includes a new index and a glossary was added.

TF# 384 - Communities of Care: Catholic Parishes and Mental Health Peer Support

This week on Thinking Faith Deacon Eric Gurash discusses the ways that spiritual peer support can help navigate mental health challenges and the role our parishes and Catholic social teaching can play in building caring, supportive communities.

Show Snippet: "Our parish communities are uniquely positioned to walk with others, offering prayer-filled support that can rebuild self-esteem and confidence often undermined by experiences of mental illness through a focus on mutuality, self-determination, respect, dignity, equity, and belonging."

Emmaus Mental Health Ministries

"While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them." Luke 24:15

At Emmaus Mental Health Ministries we believe in the strength and comfort that can come from peers walking with and supporting peers.

Our spiritual peer support groups bring together individuals with lived experience of mental health challenges in the family.

Spiritual peer support focuses on shared prayer, learning building resiliency, walking together, moving forward towards a healthier life for ourselves and those whom we care for, and discovering Jesus Christ walking with us in the midst of it all.

Who needs you to hold their hand today? Who do you need to hold yours?

ASH WEDNESDAY

Why do we do we receive ashes on our forehead in the shape of a cross on Ash Wednesday, and what does it mean?

The ashes are a symbol of our human mortality, the fact that we will die and our only survival is through Christ. Indeed, when the priest puts the ashes on our forehead, tracing the sign of the cross with his finger, he speaks the words, "Remember you are dust and to dust you shall return.

This does not seem like a very nice thing for a person to say, because it is a reminder that we must die. But it isn't a curse at all. Instead, it is a gentle reminder that we live only due to the will of God, and we will live again, only through the deliverance of Jesus Christ.

God created us from dust. Even science has demonstrated that we are all made of atoms created at the beginning of the universe. Although our bodies will return to dust, our immortal souls will live again, thanks to Christ's sacrifice, hence the sign of the cross.

Ash Wednesday is a day of repentance, prayer and fasting. After receiving our ashes, we should go home to pray and meditate on this simple truth: Our bodies come from dust, and to dust they shall return, but our souls will live forever thanks to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross.

Lenten Reflection

Almighty and Everlasting God,
You have given the human race
Jesus Christ our Savior as a model of humility.
He fulfilled Your Will by becoming Man and giving His life on the Cross.
Help us to bear witness to You by following
His example of suffering and make us worthy to share in His Resurrection.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son.
Amen.
