JOHN 20:21-22

From Anger to Peace

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

At this point in history, we are a nation filled with much anger. Given all that is taking place, one might conclude that it comes from a fear of losing control—fears due to the waves of immigrants seeking asylum, to a changing economy, to political alliances, to artificial intelligence, resulting in our inability to sort truth from untruth. Fears also due to strained relationships with non-Western nations, to urban violence and the abundance of guns, to the conflict between pro-life and pro-choice allegiances, and, for some, to what is perceived as conflicted thinking within the Catholic Church. There is no shortage of what may be fueling our anger. How can faith help us respond in a life-giving way?

Saint John writes that "whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith" (1 John 5:4). This is not to say that we can easily make the world respond in ways we want, but rather that the world has no power over the person who places all trust in God's presence among us. It was the risen Lord who once brought peace to the disciples behind doors locked out of fear. Might not our faith help us who have locked ourselves behind doors of mistrust and anger? If only we allow ourselves to trust God. Yet, we should not simply shrug off all cares or involvement in life; on the contrary, with faith and trust, we recognize we are not the only players in shaping the events of the world. ●

Reflect

Do I bring my faith to the news of the day; do I pray for peace?

May the Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace.

You'll be seeing and hearing lots about the annual Cal Murphy Memorial Golf Tournament in the next few weeks. This will be our 25th year and we think its worth celebrating. The date is Sunday, June 8 at Aspen Links Country Club in Emerald Park. We always appreciate your help to find us sponsors and prizes for the golfers and other banquet attendees through business, family or friends. Please remember our efforts again this year. There are golf entry forms and sponsor information on the table in the Gerein Centre. We'll be setting up a table to accept entries next weekend.

Both Fred Schuba and Bill Maloughney have passed away. Please keep them and their family in your prayers at this resurrection time.

Please let us know about any parishioner news so we can pass it on to others for prayers in need or in celebration. Contact Martin at 306-347-0929 or pastoral.assistant@holycrossregina.ca OR Joyce Murphy at 306-789-1983 or byapple@sasktel.net.

We are republishing the Easter Flower Donations list on the following page again, as some of the early printed bulletins (the first 30) did not show all the lines that should have been shown! My apologies for this.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

CBC and other media are contributing to a societal shift, where assisted suicide is becoming normalized and glamorized rather than viewed as a heartbreaking last resort. The media's repeated sentimental portrayals overshadow the distressing realities of euthanasia. The stories rarely discuss the ethical dilemmas doctors face, the emotional trauma the families face or the psychological turmoil individuals experience leading up to their decision. Instead they romanticize the experience, distorting public deception and sanitizing the gritty reality.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

“Abraham” Update

Lent is over and so ends the project to help “Abraham” during some tough times. First of all, I would like to thank everyone for giving so generously to this project. Your kindness, generosity and willingness to pitch in and help is quite overwhelming. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

According to the bible, God called our ancestor Abraham to relocate from his home in Ur to Canaan, the land of milk and honey. Abraham seemed to be an appropriate name for this project. Our Abraham (actual name Henry) came to Canada from Nigeria to study and, hopefully, become a permanent resident. He will then be able to sponsor his wife and three children so they will be able to join him here. He will be writing his final exam on Friday, April 25th. During his time here, he obtained part-time work and his employer has offered him a full-time job when he is finished with his studies. This will enable him to apply for permanent residency and his employer will provide a letter of recommendation to go along with his application.

Henry seems to be well on his way and the good people of Holy Cross Parish are responsible for giving him a step up. With your donations, Henry was able to take care of his tuition, pay some bills and send some money to help his family in Africa. Below is a detailed description of how much we were able to raise for him.

Ash Wednesday collection	$948.80
Jars/donations	770.05
Knights of Columbus	200.00
CWL	200.00
Match by Social Action	200.00

Total raised by Holy Cross 2,318.85

The Knights of Columbus also applied to the Saskatchewan K of C Charitable Foundation for a contribution. This contribution comes from the Foundation’s contingency fund, which is a reserve fund for special needs requests under $1,000. The K of C Charitable foundation contributed a cheque for $500. The Knights also helped Henry with donations of bags of rice and carrots from their Lenten Food Drive.

This was truly a concentrated effort by Holy Cross Parish. Thanks again. God bless you all.

FYI – Henry usually attends mass at 9:00 on Sunday and sticks around for donuts. Stop by and introduce yourself if you have a minute.

Dear Parishioners,

I want to use this medium to thank you for your financial support. God has been using the members of this great parish to bless me and my family. Your generosity and support mean a lot to me, and I am truly grateful for your kindness.

May God continue to bless every member of Holy Cross Parish and grant us all our heart desires in Jesus' name, Amen.

Yours faithfully
Henry Osigwe.

CAL MURPHY MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

This is the 25th year for Holy Cross to hold this tournament. It began back in 2000 as a fundraiser for our Parish with two members of Parish Council—Cal Murphy and Tony Howell. Many members of Holy Cross have worked for it over the years but there and there are two who are still involved—Gerald Workman and Joyce Murphy.

We hope you will come and help us celebrate this special occasion. We would also appreciate your assistance to obtain sponsors and prizes for the tournament.

What's Happening in the Archdiocese 1

Statement from Archbishop Donald Bolen on the Passing of Pope Francis April 21, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we, the faithful of the Archdiocese of Regina, join with Catholics and many others around the world in mourning the passing of Pope Francis.

Pope Francis' twelve-year papacy was defined by an unwavering commitment to the mercy of God made visible in the life of the Church and the world. His tireless concern for the poor, the marginalized, and those so often overlooked, has left an indelible mark on the lives of people around the world.

Pope Francis was deeply human. He knew he was a sinner, and trusted that he was loved by God, and called to serve. He knew his own limitations and failings, and that informed his understanding that we need to hear all the voices as we discern how the Church is supposed to proclaim the Gospel and live its message.

Pope Francis invited us time and again to walk the path of compassion, tenderness, and accompaniment. He called us to build a Church that goes out to the peripheries, that listens before speaking, and that embraces synodality — walking together as the People of God, discerning the promptings of the Holy Spirit in communion with one another.

He modelled a spirit of dialogue, not only within the Church but also with all Christians, calling us to walk together, pray together, and act for justice and peace together. Pope Francis also fostered dialogue with people of other religious traditions and with all people of goodwill. His bridge building efforts reached across religious, cultural, and political divides, reminding us that authentic encounter and respectful conversation are essential to the Gospel mission.

Today, as we mourn the death of our brother, we give thanks to God for the gift of Pope Francis, for his courage, his vision, and his ever-present reminder that mercy is the very heart of God. Dying the day after Easter, we see his passing in light of the resurrection, and pray that he too will rise and will see the face of the Risen Lord. May his legacy continue to inspire the Church for generations to come.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Yours in Christ, ☐

Donald J. Bolen
Archbishop of Regina

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies”. Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

GOOD NEWS Updates to Hospital Chaplains

As of April 8, 2025, the Saskatchewan Health Authority is now asking patients at Admission if they would like a Spiritual Care Visit during their hospital stay in the General or Pasqua Hospital. They will collect the patient's faith information and notify the chaplains that you are in the hospital. This information is not stored at the hospital upon discharge, so you will need to provide the information for additional hospitalizations.

If you end up in the hospital by the emergency room, you are not going to be asked this question. If you would like to have a visit, you or a family member can use the contact information below to speak with a hospital chaplain. If you would like a visit from your parish priest, you will need to notify the chaplain or the parish to let them know that you are in the hospital.
