Bloom Where You Are Planted

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

If you could change one aspect of your life, what would that be? Financial instability? Arthritis? Addiction? A disruptive family member? Work's daily grind? Finding love? No doubt the answers are as varied as the people who answer the question.

Though the old poster advises us to "bloom where you are planted," sometimes we can feel as if we've been planted among weeds—the people we've been given, the problems that continually pop up, the conflicts that all too often shut out the peace we seek. Just as Jesus sends disciples into every place he intends to visit, the reality for us may very well be that he sends us into the very lives we live even though we wish we could change them. Where we are is where we've been sent. It is in the lives we have that we work out our salvation, for Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is at hand for you" (Luke 10:9).

St. Paul emphasized how important it is for disciples of Jesus to live out their identity as a new creation. British artist and sculptor Henry Moore made the observation that, in life, it is most important that we give ourselves over to a goal or dream, something so all-consuming that we live it morning, noon, and night. And the most important aspect of it, he said, is that it must be something we cannot possibly accomplish. For the followers of Jesus, it is the lifelong task to bloom where we've been planted. ●

Reflect

What is the hardest part of my life right now?
 What is the most blessed?

The Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit.

LUKE 10:1

SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE

In August Holy Cross will be starting a Spiritual Pilgrimage requiring 15 minutes of daily reading from Mathew Kelly's latest book "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory". Our pilgrimage will end on Sunday, Sept. 14, our Parish Feast Day, The Exaltation of the Holy Cross, with our consecration.

Dynamic Catholic explains that the consecration is an act of dedicating oneself fully to God, particularly through the Eucharist. It's a commitment to be 100% available to God's will and to receive Jesus in the Eucharist with a deeper understanding and desire. This consecration serves as a preparation for a more profound reception of Jesus in the Eucharist, aiming to fill one's life with "astounding clarity and lasting joy."

Sign up sheets are at both entrances for the number of books needed.

CCCB: In the Roman Catholic Church, the month of July is dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. This devotion centers on the blood Jesus shed during his passion and death, as a symbol of our redemption and salvation. Catholics in Canada, like those in other parts of the world, are encouraged to use this month to intensify their focus on the sacrifice of Jesus and contemplate the power of His blood for salvation and sanctification.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the labourers are few...’” LUKE 10:2

As Catholics, we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms,” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit, to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy, and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.
